Presentation Topics
Social Psychology, PY 205

The topics and dates that will be used for the group presentations are given below. Also listed are the people assigned to each presentation. Contact me if you have any questions about your topic, presentation date, or group members.

1. Should we continue to fund the “war on drugs”?

   Date: Friday, October 22, 2004

   Participants: Amy Chamberlain, Nicholas Hager, Alcione Frederick, Paul Fleischer

2. Is the Patriot Act too great a threat to our civil liberties?

   Date: Wednesday, October 27, 2004

   Participants: Rachel Almy, Stacey Cremar, Shane Fuhrman, Michelle Schoonmaker

3. Is terrorism ever justified?

   Date: Monday, November 1, 2004

   Participants: Tara Gracey, Angela Davidson, Kathryn O’Brien, Allison Hoberg

4. Should the draft be reinstated?

   Date: Friday, November 5, 2004

   Participants: Nicholas Wade, Nicole Lewis, Anthony Holly, Christina Jones

5. Does the Constitution guarantee a “right to privacy”?

   Date: Wednesday, November 10, 2004

   Participants: Colleen Hughes, Shannon Johnston, Amy Albrecht, Alaina Cominskie
6. Should the phrase “under God” be removed from the Pledge of Allegiance?

Date: Monday, November 15, 2004

Participants: Thomas LeClair Michelle Krug Annamaria Tobia
              Ashley Hughes

7. Should executions be televised?

Date: Friday, November 19, 2004

Participants: Courtney Baker Lindsey Yohn Megan Minerick
              Daniel Stagnaro-Green

8. Should illegal aliens currently living in the United States be granted permanent residency status?

Date: Wednesday, December 1, 2004

Participants: Elliot Stillwater Elizabeth Cooney Paul Berry
              Gabrielle Benson

9. Should we prohibit minors from purchasing video games that portray graphic violence?

Date: Monday, December 6, 2004

Participants: Justin Kelly Devin Rice Melody Bratton

10. Should parents be encouraged to home school their children?

Date: Friday, December 10, 2004

Participants: Kristin Thomas Valerie Meyers Janelle Mitchell